

Code of conduct

- To adhere to the mission statement of the American Cockatiel Society and to work to further its goals and objectives.
- To conduct all business affairs with integrity, sincerity and accuracy in an open and forthright manner.
- To act with integrity in financial dealings with clients, other professionals and the public.
- To handle our business, operations, and communications (including those through social media) in a manner that promotes the positive image of the American Cockatiel Society.
- To instill confidence among our members and the public avoid any action that may be conducive to discrediting the American Cockatiel Society or its membership.
- To show respect, courtesy, and decency towards fellow ACS members by upholding the highest standards of professional ethics and mutual civility regardless of circumstances.
- To create a supportive culture that builds and maintains a collaborative relationship with all those in the hobby or other animal husbandry.
- To create a culture of education for the betterment of the cockatiel breed as a whole.

In the exhibition arena –

- The participants commit themselves to the values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- The participants refuse to compromise the impartiality of the judges.
- The participants respect the show rules and regulations of the hosting exhibition club.
- The participants welcome, encourage, and supports newcomers to exhibition.
- The participants always consider the welfare of their birds.